Delivery Driver for the greater Seattle-Tacoma area

Urban Family Brewing Co. is looking for the right person to help represent our brand and continue our growth! This part-time position with the option for full time in the future, and will be responsible for executing daily sales and fulfilling delivery routes. The ideal candidate would live in the Seattle Metro area and bring a love of craft beer. Successful team members are hard workers who are customer-focused, reliable, and have excellent communication, time, and task management skills. Currently looking for availability Tuesday-Thursday from 9:00a to 5:00p.

Duties include:

- Representing the brand positively and professionally in the market
- Safely and accurately deliver kegs and cases to on and off premise accounts throughout the Seattle Metro area
- Operate company vehicles in a professional, safe and courteous manner
- Work closely with the sales team to track inventory and out-of-stocks
- Process payments from customers
- Merchandise off premise accounts as necessary to ensure consistent shelf space
- Rearrange and stack warehouse inventory

Things we would like to see:

- Self-motivated
- Strong communication skills; professional, informative, and friendly
- Clean driving record
- Strong problem-solving skills
- Experience in the beer industry preferred, but not required
- Forklift and warehousing experience preferred, but not required
- Able to lift up to 65 pounds consistently and upwards of 150+ pound kegs in and out of delivery vehicle, with reasonable accommodations
- Ability to stand (and sit) 6-8 hours
- Ability to use a computer, and other electronic equipment
- Big plus if you like dogs and board games (cats are ok too)

Pay starts at $23 an hour. If you would like more information, please send your resume (in .pdf format) and a cover letter or email of why you would be a good fit for the position to andy@urbanfamilybrewing.com

Women and members of the BIPOC and LGBTQIA+ communities are highly encouraged to apply.
